Certified School Personnel: _____

Potential Community Partner(s): _____

What is your “essential question” that the ELO will be based on? This question helps to focus your plan. Be sure your question is authentic, thoughtful and engaging.

Why do you want to do this ELO? What do you expect to learn?

How do your proposed community partners offer a rich source of knowledge and experience? What will their role be? How do they factor in to project assessment?

What challenges or obstacles might arise in this project?

Are there any necessary preparations needed (ESL, additional needs, etc)?
Please list how you learn best!

What transportation needs exist for this ELO?

All ELOs must contain the following four elements (please list what you will do for each—think creatively!):

RESEARCH-

How will you research your ELO?

- Books
- Interview(s)
- On-line
- Group discussions
- Other

REFLECTION-

How will you reflect on your ELO?

- Composition book
- Blog
- Electronic document
- Verbally/conversationally

PRODUCT (should benefit community partner)-

PRESENTATION-

Create a timeline for the ELO. Include when you will reflect, when you will meet with members of your ELO team, rehearsals, drafts, final presentation, etc.

If your ELO is based on a standard NRHS subject, what are the subject area competencies?

Identify the competencies that are specific to this ELO. Skills and content should both be included here.

- You must meet with your team and refine and enhance your plan. Cross check your work thus far. Does your essential question lead to a rich exploration of the competencies? Does the final presentation give you the opportunity to address the essential question?
